Dear Parent/Guardian

23 January 2012

The Somme Battlefield Tour

As an enrichment activity for Year 8 History students, we will be running a trip to the Somme First World War Battlefields.

The visit will be a one day excursion leaving school at 4.15am and returning at 11.00 pm (depending on traffic) on Saturday 24 March. Travel will be by luxury coach, crossing the channel by Eurotunnel. The cost of the trip will be £60.00 each, including travel and entry to the museum and the Somme Battlefields. We will also have a specialist guide at the Somme Battlefield.

All students will need to provide their own passports and EHIC cards which must be valid until at least August 2012.

Numbers are limited to 45 students and places will be allocated on a first come basis. The deadline for replies and payments to be returned is Monday 13 February. Students do not need to wear school uniform for the day but must dress appropriately – it can very wet! and will need to provide their own drinks and packed food.

If you wish your son or daughter to take part in the visit, please complete and return the form below. Please enclose cash or cheque for £60.00 payable to The Petersfield School.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to e-mail me on PRobjohn@petersfieldschool.com

Yours sincerely

Mr P Robjohn
Head of History
